MRS. WILLIAM M. McGRATH III

Liberty Chapel Baptist Church, Gladstone, Virginia was the setting June 9th for the marriage of Miss Beverly Renee Booker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm A. Booker of Appomattox, Virginia, to William M. McGrath III, of Newport News, Virginia.

The Reverend Paul K. Buckles, pastor of First Performed the double ring ceremony before an altar offoanked palms with branched candelabars and basket arrangements of white gladiola and chrysanthimums.

Mrs. Belle Reynolds presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Edna Earle Gregg sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of silk organza and hand llipped Chantilly lace over taffeta; designed with a molded bodice and long tapered sleeves with wedding peaks over the hands. The portrait neckline and front of bodice was over laid in lace embroidered in seed pearls and irridescents and appliqued lace motifs were strewn over the very full skirt which swept into a chapel train. A tired bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a scalloped crown accented with tear drop pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with stephonotis.

Mrs. Mary Jane Edwards, matron of honor, sister of the groom, wore a street length sheath of flower green organza over taffeta, styled with a scooped neckline, elbow length sleeves, and a bow trimmed short, flared peplum. She wore a matching taffeta open top pill box with circular face veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations and gfpsophelia.

Misses Carolyn Ellis, Nancy Pennington, Barbara Hodnett, and Frnces Vestal were bridesmaids. They wore dresses identical to the matron of honor's They carried nosegays of yellow carnations and and gypsophella tied with yellow ribbon.

Miss Valerie Booker, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white organdy dress with full gathered skirt over taffeta and a green sash the color of the brides-maid's dresses. She wore a bandeau of yellow feathered carnations. Bryan Snoddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Snoddy Jr. of Dillwyn, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit with a tie matching the color of the dresses also.

William M. McGrath Jr., father of the groom was best man.

Groomsmen were Curt Edwards Jr, Gene Yearwood and Edward Jr., Gene Yearwood and Edward Doeppe of Newport News; Barnes Townsend of Manquin, Virginia and Malcolm Booker Jr. and Johnny Booker, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Alyce Crafton of Appomattox was mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Booker chose for her daughter's wedding a lime green dress of silk chiffon and lace with a white orchid corsage. Mrs. McGrath wore a beige sheath dress of lace over shantung and a corsage of brown cymbidium orchids.

A reception was held at the home of the bride.

For traveling the bride chose an azure blue silk sheath, paten shoes and bag, with a pillbox hat and gloves to compliment the outfit.

After a Southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Newport News, Virginia.
